The Art of Picture Books

Wednesday, July 5 - Friday, July 7
9:00 to 12:00 PM

We will use picture books as a springboard to create our own art experiences.

Examining illustrated classics, including “Little Blue, Little Yellow”, by Leo Lionni, “The Very Hungry Caterpillar”, by Eric Carle, “Good Night Moon”, by Clement Hurd, and “Where the Wild Things Are”, by Maurice Sendak and many more, we will sculpt, paint and draw artworks of our very own.

The Art of Nature

Wednesday, July 5 - Friday, July 7
2:00 to 5:00 PM

Enjoy nature based activities that are fun and engaging and awaken children’s senses, minds and hearts. Going outside for learning and art making helps children to develop a sense of spirit, independence and confidence.

Projects will include clay modeling, a branch and rope constructed wall hanging, cornhusk dolls, rock sculptures, an accordion hand made art book complete with illustrations and much more! In case of inclement weather, we will bring our projects into the studio for completion.

Cost: $180.00 per session (both sessions $350.00)
Snacks provided. Children should bring sunscreen and bug spray as needed.
