

RUNNING WILD

Art & Writing Workshops for Adults

Thursdays, September 19 to November 7
STUDIO CLASSES on Sept. 19 and 26, October 3, 10, November 24, 31)

(Must register for complete session—$120.00)

Join Mickey Waring, artist and writer, for a dynamic weekly exploration of creativity. Our workshop series includes both visual arts and creative writing, combined in a variety of mediums -- collage, watercolor, drawing, art & nature journaling, book-making, poetry and more. Instruction will be given at the onset of each session, followed by lots of encouragement for the students to play and learn together in a supportive and nurturing environment.

Basic supplies are included, but there will be a suggested list of materials to purchase. Let your imaginations Run Wild!!!

All of these workshops* were special requests from our current students. Feedback welcome!

- September 19 Monoprints/ Gelatin prints using a variety of mixed media —Abstract designs
- September 26 Creative Paper Doll Construction—Mixed Media and Collage (Shoba)
- October 3 Sequential Oil Painting—create a landscape using rubber gloves (Chaton)
- October 10 Water Color Batik on Rice Paper—towns or cities (Deb)
- October 24 Gouache with Varnish technique—Explore the figure
- October 31 Expressive Acrylic Portrait Paintings on Cardboard

*All classes subject to change

Call Mickey Waring, Westerhoff School of Music & Art 732-548-8680